

CATHOLICISM

Journey Around the World and Deep into the Faith

“See the story of the Catholic faith as you have never seen it before.” – WOF

Experience the “most vivid catechism ever created; the best-ever film about the Catholic faith.” –Brad Miner, The Catholic Thing blog

Renowned creator and host, Fr. Robert Barron, illuminates what the Catholic Church believes and why, while immersing you in the richness of the Catholic tradition’s art, architecture, literature, music, beliefs, and practices. Filmed in 50 locations throughout 15 countries, this series is an epic journey around the world, across cultures, and deep into faith; a journey towards beauty, truth, and goodness, that can only be described as ambitious, visually stunning, attractive, brilliant, thought-provoking, and accessible.

Tuesdays @ 7:00-8:30 PM in the Hospitality Room

Series Begins January 17: 10 Weeks...10 Videos...10 Topics...

Each meeting will consist of one 50-minute DVD followed by discussion and questions. No registration is required, so doors are open to all. The cost is FREE, but those who are interested in delving deeper into the content may purchase other materials to supplement their study by visiting www.wordonfire.org. Questions? Contact Tim Roth at the Parish Office: 440-729-9575.
